Once your application has been received you will receive an acknowledgement within 72 hours. If you have not heard from us within that time period, please contact us.

The information requested is needed to process your application in accordance with the membership requirements and guidelines. The information will also be useful in knowing who is finding the CIMS of potential value and interest and as background to help the conference and qualifications groups to focus on Members' interests, needs and activities. All information disclosed to the CIMS will be handled under the provisions of the Data Protection Act. Those joining the CIMS will have their names included in a register of members. From time to time the Institute may send out additional information regarding related groups, organisations or events. Please advise us if you would not like to receive such communications. The CIMS does not make your information available to others.
